The Daily Gazetteer.

MONDAY, AUGUST 11. 1735.

Saturday last arrived a Mail from Flanders.

Petersburg, July 26.

IS confirm'd from Conſtantinople, that the Ottoman Porte has not only promiſed the Czarina's Miniſter at that Court, that the Tartars ſhall not diſturb the Tranquillity of the Provinces of the Ruſſian Empire, but that the Sultan has actually order'd them not to approach within Ten Leagues of her Imperial Majeſty's Territories. Nevertheleſs all the neceſſary Precautions are taken to prevent a Surprize.

There are ſome Advices from Stockholm which ſay, that the Court of Sweden is about to nominate Commiſſioners to negotiate with the Miniſters of her Imperial Majeſty, the Renewal of the Treaty concluded between the two Courts in 1724, which is juſt upon expiring.

Warſaw, Aug. 3. Laſt Friday the Queen declared that ſhe was with Child, and that ſhe would lie in here.

Next Day the Primate had a private Audience of the King, when they conſulted about Ways and Means for diſappointing the Succeſs of the ſecret Caballings of the contrary Party, to render the enſuing Dyet of Pacification fruitleſs.

The Circular Letter which the Primate has ſent to all the Palatinates and Diſtricts of the Republick, exhorting them to hold the Petty Dyets preparatory to the Dyet of Pacification, has theſe Paragraphs in it, which may be worthy of ſome Attention.

The Primate ſays, 'That having learnt by his own Experience, that Heart-burnings and Difference of Opinions only ſerv'd to increaſe thoſe Calamities with which the Country was afflicted, he had at laſt firmly reſolved to come and ſubmit to a King, who by his ſuperior Abilities, maintains himſelf upon a Throne for which he was deſign'd from all Eternity: A King, whoſe Proſperity very plainly demonſtrates that God has choſe him to be the Object of the Veneration and Affection of the People of Poland. — The Primate adds, that it was not to ſhorten the Hardſhips of a tedious Impriſonment, which determin'd him to make his Submiſſion to King Auguſtus; but that he did it purely from State-Policy, and the rather, becauſe the Hopes which he had all along entertained were fruſtrated; that being now by the ſpecial Favour of the Empreſs of Ruſſia reſtored to his Liberty, he has recogniz'd the moſt Serene Auguſtus III. for Lawful King, and that at the ſame time he acknowledges ſuch Virtues in this Prince, as are at leaſt equal to thoſe of the greateſt Princes, and above all, a perfect Diſpoſition to maintain the Laws and Liberties of the Country. — He ſays afterwards, that the moſt Serene King Auguſtus being of Opinion that a General Dyet is the only Remedy for the preſent Evils, and having publiſhed Univerſalia for calling the Petty Dyets, he (the Primate) thinks that all the Lords to whom thoſe Letters are addreſſed, may firmly truſt that they ſhall ſee the Golden Age ſucceed the Age of Iron; and that according to the Aſſurances which his Majeſty himſelf has given him, they will find in him a true Father of his Country; provided that they are united, and that they give his Majeſty ſincere Proofs of their Devotion to him: That he exhorts them to this with all his Heart, as well as to conſider that any Hopes which they may conceive from Abroad, will only tend to perpetuate the Domeſtick War, and more and more to exaſperate the neighbouring Powers. — He concludes with ſaying, that the moſt Serene Empreſs of Ruſſia has been induced by her Goodneſs to declare, that as ſoon as Peace is entirely reſtored in Poland, ſhe will recall her Troops, without making any Demands upon the State; and moreover, that this Princeſs, ſo truly Royal is her Magnanimity, is deſirous to renew and confirm the Bands of Union and of the ancient Alliance which is ſtill ſubſiſting between her Majeſty and the Republick; that therefore he exhorts his Brethren to render a thouſand Thankſgivings to Heaven, for that Poland is like to recover its former Splendor; and he perſuades them to great Unanimity in their Petty Dyets, and in the Election of their Deputies, and above all, to recognize their new King Auguſtus, as the Means at laſt to obtain a general Peace in the Kingdom, for which he promiſes to labour as much as his Strength, impair'd by Age, will permit him, for which he puts up the moſt ardent Vows, &c.

Dreſden, Aug. 8. So many Expreſſes paſs through this City from Vienna to Hanover, and from Hanover to Vienna, that ſome Negociation of Importance is ſuppos'd to be upon the Carpet, and Monſieur Karff a Poliſh Lieutenant is arriv'd here, with Orders to the Regency to ſend Count Sulkowsky immediately to Warſaw, in order to go from thence to execute a Commiſſion of Importance from his Majeſty, with Prince Eugene.

Berlin, Auguſt 9. Meſſieurs de Chavigny and de la Chetardie, the Miniſters of France, repaired two Days ago to Potſdam, where they had the Honour to dine with his Majeſty, and in the Afternoon they returned hither. The former had an Audience of the Queen this Day, and will ſet out To-morrow for Hanover. The King deſigns to ſet out this Day from Potſdam for Wetterhauſen, to take the Diverſions of the Seaſon there.

From the Upper Rhine, Auguſt 10. The French continue to make ſeveral Motions; and as they have marked out a Camp between Altzey and Ketternheim, where they will find Abundance of Forage, 'tis believed their Army will go thither. 'Tis ſuppoſed, that the Imperial Army will alſo ſoon be in Motion: but 'tis doubted whether it will enter upon Action before the Arrival of the Ruſſian Troops, which are expected in 10 or 12 Days near Heidelberg, where Part of their Baggage is already arrived.

Mantua, July 30. The Allies, amongſt whom we are aſſured there is a Miſunderſtanding, keep at ſuch a Diſtance from this Place, that we are very quiet here, and Letters paſs and repaſs with all the Freedom that can be. We learn from Tyrol, that the Imperial Army having been augmented with 6000 Men, amounts now to the Number of 26,000, and expects another conſiderable Reinforcement.

Vienna, Auguſt 3. The ſeveral Accounts we have had of the late Battle betwixt the Turks and the Perſians, differ as to the Number of the Slain; but they agree in general, that of 70 or 80,000 Turks, not a third Part eſcaped. Tho' the Conſternation was very great at Conſtantinople upon the Receipt of this News, nevertheleſs Councils have been held for retrieving this Loſs, and it has been determined to erect the Standard of Mahomet, which will oblige all Perſons fit to bear Arms to go into the Field. 'Tis ſaid, that ſince this great Victory, Kouli-Kan, who has made a very advantageous Treaty with the Czarina, whereby ſhe reſtores to Perſia all the Conqueſts of the late Czar Peter I, has given her Czarian Majeſty to underſtand, that this is the right Time to reſtore the Perſian Monarchy to its ancient Luſtre, and to confine the haughty Turks to their ancient Limits.

Yeſterday arrived a Mail from France.

Naples, July 26.

SEVERAL Tartanes are ſailed hence for Sicily, in order to tranſport the Gariſon of Trapani to Trieſte. Two Days ago the King perform'd the Ceremony of driving the firſt Nail into the Galley, which is to ſerve for the Commander of the Squadron of Neapolitan Gallies, which is actually forming. The King has made a Preſent of his Picture ſet in Diamonds, value 8000 Livres, to the General of the Malteſe Gallies, who convoy'd his Majeſty with his Squadron on his Return from Sicily.

Florence, July 30. They are continually ſending heavy battering Cannon, Ammunition, &c. into Lombardy. We hear from the Camp before Mirandola, that two Days ago the Officer who commands at that Siege, ſent Word to the Governor of the Place, that if he ſtays till all the Batteries are ready to play upon the Town, he muſt not expect a Capitulation for the Gariſon.

Paris, Aug. 17. Letters of the 3d Inſtant from the Army in Italy ſay, that the King of Sardinia and the Marſhal de Noailles are ſet out for Milan; but that they are to return to the Army before the 20th Inſtant.

Letters from the Army in Germany ſay, that our Troops having eat up all the Forage in the Neighbourhood of Mentz, on this Side the Rhine, are marching in order to return to Spirebach, where they will find better Subſiſtance. The Enemy's Army expects the firſt Column of the Muſcovite Troops towards the End of this Month. There is a Convention concluded between Prince Eugene and the Marſhal de Coigny, by which the advanced Guards of either Side are not to be inſulted.

Hanover, Auguſt 13. The Right Hon. the Lord Lovelace having taken Leave on Wedneſday laſt of the King at Herrenhauſen, his Lordſhip ſet out from thence the next Morning for England, and intends to pay his Reſpects to the Prince and Princeſs of Orange at Loo in Holland, in his Way home.

Letters from Vienna of the 3d Inſtant, N. S. ſay, there were Advices from Turkey of the Grand Vizier's being depoſed, and ſent away on board a Veſſel, and that a certain Baſhaw of Egypt was made Vizier in his Room.
